So...What Next?

If you think this provision is suitable for any children and young people you are seeking a provision for, please contact Mr. Neil Rees-Davies and the Local Authority.

Any case put forward for the ACP will require an assessment and will involve a Local Authority Case manager, the head teacher and the ACP department to establish if a suitable offer of placement can be made.

Alternative Curriculum Provision

What is the ACP?

The Alternative Curriculum Provision has been created to support children and young people who have Social, Emotional and Mental health issues as well as behavioural issues.

This service is run by the staff based at Rowhill school in conjunction with external providers to enable children and young people to access learning in a tailored way which suits them best.

We offer a broad timetable including an in-school curriculum, home tuition, or if preferred this can take place in a public venue such as a library. Through work with our external providers* we offer a widening choice of different subjects enabling students to achieve their potential.

*You can find some of our providers detailed within this leaflet.

Write Trak

- Teamwork, partnership and support to ensure the best possible learning environment is created.
- Personal responsibility and leadership to ensure everyone understands their roles within the school and feel a sense of well-being and achievement.
- Innovation, creativity and change to ensure that the school remains at the cutting edge of teaching and learning and behavioural development.
- Resilient, optimistic and positive to ensure all young people learn to cope with success and failure to develop self-esteem.
- Challenge, opportunity and recognition to ensure all possible avenues for development are investigated and achievement rewarded.
- Honesty, trust and compassion to ensure we become emotionally intelligent community people capable of understanding the feelings of others.
