

Topic - Term 1 - Locational Knowledge

Learning objectives	Activities	Key questions	Resources
To know where we are in the world	Where are we on Earth? Can you name our country? continent? county? city/town? Look at Google Earth, find the school Look at world map, find UK	Can I name our country? Can I find where we are on a map or globe?	Google Earth World Map Atlases
To identify the 4 countries of the UK	4 countries of the UK prompt template Look at UK map and try to identify the 4 countries, Colour the countries on the map to match their names. Can you find capital cities? Label them	Can I name the 4 countries of UK? Can I find them on a simple map? Can I learn the capital cities?	UK countries template to colour code and label capitals UK map printed or use atlases
To identify and explore flags and flowers	Matching flags with countries of UK. Flags to colour. Matching flowers with countries of the UK. Look at examples of their use in sports, advertising, tradition, special days (Saints)	Can I match flags of UK to countries? Can I match flowers to countries of UK? Can I give examples of where I have seen these flowers before?	Risk assessment for walk Prompt sheet for human features of Longfield Camera Printed photos Large floor map of Longfield
To know the continents of the world	Interactive ppt - continents World map with continents coloured. Continent shapes to match with names and create into world map	Can I name at least 3 continents? Can I understand that UK is in Europe? Can I match continents with their names?	Continents of the world ppt - twinkl Continents of the world matching cards and names
To know the oceans of the world	Interactive ppt - oceans Place ocean names on large world map. Build a world map - continents and oceans - Twinkl	Can I name the oceans of the world? Can I find at least 1 ocean on a world map?	Oceans ppt - Twinkl Build a world map - twinkl
To explore the world and the location of countries and places	Google Earth - laptops. Children to explore freely - adult support when needed	Can I think of places to explore? Can I name any other countries I want to explore? Can I discuss what I've found out?	Laptops Google Earth