

Vacancy Advert

0.6FTE Communication and Interaction Specialist Teacher – permanent

Start date: September 2021

Salary: Main/Upper Pay Range plus SEN Allowance (dependent on SEN qualifications)

Are you a Qualified Teacher with a passion to work with children and young people with SEND?

Do you want to be a part of a dedicated and successful team who are dedicated to “making a difference” to children and young people with SEND, their families and professionals who work with them?

The Dartford Specialist Teaching and Learning Service has the exciting opportunity for a qualified and experienced teacher to join our team, who are employed by and based at Rowhill School.

Dartford STLS is one of twelve District STLS teams in Kent, commissioned by Kent County Council, and is committed to providing high quality teaching and learning support for children and young people with SEND, within mainstream schools and EY settings in Dartford. A solution-focused approach is at the heart of all that we do to improve inclusive practice.

We are looking for an excellent practitioner with experience of working with pupils who have Communication and Interaction needs. The age range covered will be across all age phases but is likely to be predominantly within the primary age phase.

The role will mainly involve supporting and advising school staff on successfully including pupils and striving to remove barriers to inclusion. This includes school visits for individual cases, capacity building through the LIFT process and delivering training.

Rowhill School is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff to share this commitment.

Key dates:

Closing date for applications:	Sunday 9th May 2021
