

The loot

A group of men went to rob the bank. One drew up a plan. One got a swag bag for the loot. As soon as the moon came out, the men went into the bank. It was gloomy.

One was such a brute he blew up the safe. It went BOOM and bits flew all around the room.

Vroom Vroom! The cops are here. They drew their guns and said, "Put your hands up or we'll shoot!"

Now the men are in jail. They have blue suits and all they eat for lunch is soup.
