

Draculite

Hi, I'm Draculite.

I'm not like the other vampires.

I never quite get it right!

I don't lie down to sleep in the daytime.

I'm tired at night.

And I almost never bite.

I won't bite a man. They don't feel quite right.

I won't bite a lady. They don't sound quite right.

I won't bite a teenager. They don't smell quite right.

I won't bite a child. They look so kind. I might give them a fright!

I just like to bite chips. To me, they taste just right!
