

New students are required to complete the 7-week health and safety induction course before doing the BTEC Level 1 qualification.

WEEK NO	TOPIC AREA/INDICATIVE CONTENT	LEARNING OUTCOME/UNIT ELEMENT	RESOURCES	ASSESSMENT	Qualification
1	Induction day Health and safety PPE	Theory and underpinning knowledge of Health and Safety within the Construction industry inclusive of basic awareness of First Aid expected on site. Paper-based revision and visual to support learning.	Induction pack, letter of expectation, Monitor, Whiteboard and pens.	Q&A Progress test Direct questioning record in work books	Rowhill certificate of Attendance
2	H&S Signage		St John's ambulance videos Student Educational H&S pack Whiteboard & monitor	Q&A Progress test Direct questioning record in work books
3	Fire extinguishers
4	COSHH & Faulty equipment
5	Manual handling
6/7	First Aid	Human knowledge and experience.	Paper-based completion of booklet. End of term plenary test

Students in their second year doing the BTEC Level 1 Introductory Certificate, will be recapping the above topic at the start of the academic year, working at a slightly higher level to strengthen knowledge. This will prepare them better for their CSCS card test at the end of year 11. Students also have the opportunity if they wish to practise online CSCS card testing.