MEMBER OF THE GOVERNING BODY VACANCY

Rowhill school is a special school which caters for children between 7-16 who are facing social, emotional and mental health (SEMH) challenges.

We provide incredible learning pathways for pupils with and SEMH profile (including Austism) in North Kent.

We aim to support pupils holistically, to help them become the best version of themselves.

Join Our Governing Body – Make a Difference in Kent

Are you passionate about education and community impact? Do you want to help shape the future for some of the most vulnerable children and families in North Kent?

We are seeking dedicated and strategic individuals to join the Governing Body of our special school. This is a unique opportunity to contribute to the governance and development of a vital educational provision that supports young people in Kent.

About the Role

As a member of the Governing Body, you will play a strategic and advisory role, working closely with the Local Authority (LA) and school leaders to:

- Set out clear aims and objectives for the school
- Develop and review policies, targets, and priorities
- Monitor progress and evaluate impact
- Support and challenge the Headteacher and leadership team

We are especially keen to hear from individuals with experience in finance, health and safety, compliance, HR and education who can help guide the development of the board and strengthen its strategic oversight.

Commitment

- Main Committee Meetings: Mondays 6 per year (4.30pm-6.30pm hybrid face to face and on-line)
- Finance sub-committee Meetings: Mondays 6 per year (5pm-6pm online)

Who We're Looking For

We welcome applications from individuals across all backgrounds who are:

- Committed to improving outcomes for disadvantaged children
- Able to think strategically and work collaboratively
- Willing to dedicate time, energy, and passion to governance

Whether you're an experienced governor or new to the role, if you care deeply about education and community, we'd love to hear from you.

If this is of interest please contact either Nathalie Fitzgerald - Headteacher or Andy Halpin - Chair of governors.
