Little Red Riding Hood

Page 1

Little Red Riding Hood walked through the forest collecting flowers.

Page 2

She saw lots of animals in the forest, including butterflies, squirrels and foxes.

Page 3

Suddenly, a big wolf jumped out at Little Red Riding Hood from behind a tall tree.

Page 4

Little Red Riding Hood ran away from the wolf to Granny's house.

Page 5

When she got to Granny's house, she saw the wolf in Granny's bed. "What big teeth you have," said Red Riding Hood. "All the better to eat you with!" cried the wolf.

Page 6

A woodsman heard Little Red Riding Hood's shouts and killed the wolf with his axe.

Jack and the Beanstalk

Page 1

Jack led his cow Milky-White to market to get a good price for her.

Page 2

On the way, an old man saw Jack and the cow and gave Jack 5 magic beans in exchange for Milky-White.

Page 3

When Jack's mother found out that he had only got beans instead of money she was very angry and threw the beans out of the window.

Page 4

The next morning, Jack saw a huge beanstalk had grown. He climbed it to the very top.

Page 5

At the top of the beanstalk was a castle. Jack saw a two enormous giants and lots of gold. He took some of the gold and went back down the beanstalk.

Page 6

The giant tried to follow Jack but he chopped the beanstalk down with an axe. The giant fell to the ground and died. Jack and his mother were safe.
