

Parents and carers useful links for supporting e-safety.

Links to all of the information below can be found on www.kelsi.org.uk

- pink line
- Think U Know: parents/carers guide to the internet
- Get Safe Online - advice and guidance about online safety
- NSPCC Online Safety - NSPCC Online Safety advice
- Net Aware - NSPCC reviews of 50+ popular apps/games
- Internet Matters – Information from BT, Sky, Talk Talk and Virgin
- The Parent Zone - guidance for parents and professionals working with families
- Parent Info - Excellent resource to include on school/setting websites
- UK Safer Internet Centre Parents guide to new technology - links and tips about popular devices
- UK Safer Internet Centre Parents guide to parental controls
- Digital Parenting Magazine - Issue 1 (2011)
- Digital Parenting Magazine - Issue 2 (2012)
- Digital Parenting Magazine - Issue 3 (2014)
- Digital Parenting Magazine - Issue 4 (2015)
- Digital Parenting Magazine - Issue 5 (2016)
- Yahoo Safety Tips
- Google Good to Know - includes family safety
- Microsoft UK Safety and Security Centre
- Click CEOP Browser Safety Tools - download the click CEOP button onto web browsers
- Common Sense Media - American site which reviews websites, games etc with age suitability
- Parent Port - Site for parents to report inappropriate content (on and offline)
- How Computers Work
- Go On - free online learning course about basic internet skills and safety

- NetLingo - common online acronyms and text speak e.g. LOL, POS
- Connect Safely - includes parents guides to Facebook etc
- Barnardo's Be Safe guide for parents/children about sexual exploitation
- Barnado's information on child sexual exploitation
- Staying safe online: parental controls on broadband (With thanks to Choose)
- Childnet free downloadable leaflets for parents/carers, children, young people and professionals - including gaming, music, film & TV
- Family Online Safety Institute (FOSI)
- Parents Protect – Lucy Faithfull Foundation

Gaming

pink line

- Ask About Games - advice on computer gaming and parental controls
- Pegi - information about games rating

Mobile phones

pink line

- Carphone Warehouse: guide to mobile web safety
- EE Digital Living resources - for schools and parents/carers
- Vodafone Safety - Advice from Vodafone
- O2 Child Protection Information